Dear «Title» «LastName»:

I would like to thank you for attending the "Business After Hours" which took place in our banking office last month. Your attendance contributed to the success of our event!

As a business in Southern Maine, chances are you value local business relationships and the strength they bring to your business and our community. The Bank is committed to serving the community with respect and personal service. Our Business Banking Team represents more than 50 years of business banking expertise, combined with timely, local decision-making. This allows us to offer real advantages to local businesses.

Thank you again for being there. I look forward to seeing you again soon.

If I can be of any assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Ted Jones
Vice President/Business Development Officer
